After performing around the country and honing his abilities, Remy Connor's brand new show "Thief" is available for bookings.

"Thief" debuted at Florida Supercon 2013, and was met with three sold out performances. The show attracted several celebrities as well, including the cast of AMC's "Comic Book Men".

During the shows at Florida Supercon, "Thief" was immediately booked for several other conventions along the east coast of the United States, including an Off Broadway show in Soho, NY.

Remy Connor's talents were also sought out by New York based company, Intersell Ventures for an international infomercial.

Welcome to the show that is literally setting the bar for entertainment! Remy Connor's "Thief" is a one-of-a-kind show, filled with magic, gambling, and sideshow stunts. Join Remy Connor on a ride that is unlike any other as he opens up his personal magical bar for audiences around the world.

Join Remy Connor, bartender/magician/thief, as he describes the underbelly of the world and what it takes to live in such an odd world. In this show, Remy shows how the street cons work (such as the infamous Three Shell Game), withstands the burning sensation of fire, pours the drink that an audience member merely thinks of, and entralls the audience as he teaches them how to win free drinks!
